

El HaLev
Building Safer Communities

Highlights

El HaLev is an Israel-based NGO dedicated to bringing violence prevention education and Empowerment Self Defense to all who want and need it. El HaLev operates an array of programs including:

- Educational programs for children and youth.
- Programs for survivors of violence and at-risk populations.
- Courses and activities for the general public.
- Certification program for ESD professionals.
- Training and development for professionals in the fields of education and counseling.
- Programs for organizations and workplaces.
- Content creation for digital platforms in order to increase the accessibility of ESD.

Impact Thesis

To prevent sexual, emotional, and physical violence against women, children and other vulnerable populations through innovative ESD-based training and educational programs.

Executive Team

- Adi Wimmer, CEO
- Daphna Pearl, CFO

Business Model

El HaLev training programs and workshops cultivate ambassadors of violence prevention among professionals in the fields of education and therapy, so that they may serve as agents of change within their broader circles and communities.

Ask

- $100,000 for expanding our programs for children aged 6-18.
- $250,000 for substantially expanding our training programs for educators.